

SEYMOUR DAILY REPUBLICAN.

VOLUME XXX NO. 107.

SEYMOUR, INDIANA, TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1905

PRICE TWO CENT

If you have experienced difficulty in obtaining moderately priced shoes, combining graceful outlines and correct fashion with the price, you will appreciate the elegance and comfort of the True Worth Shoes. It is the glass of fashion and the mould of form as applied to women's footwear. The perfect finishing touch to the new spring styles.

RICHART'S
SHOE HOUSE

NO. 13 EAST SECOND STREET.

Eben Holden

By
IRVING BACHELLER

Copyright, 1900, by Lathrop Publishing Company

Before he could turn I felt a rush of air and saw him fly into pieces; some of which hit me as I fell backward. I did not know what had happened; I have written, I remember feeling something under me, like a stick of wood bearing hard upon my ribs. I tried to roll off it, but somehow it was tied to me and kept hurting. I put my hand over my hip and felt it there behind me—my own arm! The hand was like that of a dead man—cold and senseless. I pulled it from under me, and it lay helpless; it could not lift itself. I knew now that I, too, had become one of the bloody horrors of the battle.

I struggled to my feet, weak and trembling and sick with nausea. I must have been lying there a long time. The firing was now at a distance. The sun had "gone half down" the sky. They were picking up the wounded in the near field. A man stood looking at me. "Good God!" he shouted and then ran away like one afraid. There was a great mass of men back of me some twenty rods. I staggered toward them, my knees

"I can never get there," I heard myself whisper.

I thought of my little flask of whisky and, pulling the cork with my teeth, drank the half of it. That steadied me, and I made better head-

Colds. Their Proper Treatment and Cure.

Commonly, the first symptom of a "cold" is a chilly feeling, accompanied by sneezing, or a tickling in the throat. The most frequent of external causes are draughts, wet or cold feet, or going from hot rooms suddenly to cold ones. This is frequently the main cause—namely the stagnation of the blood caused by constipation or biliousness. Almost the first symptom is the feeling of cold in the feet and increased discharge from the nose.

No one ever takes cold unless constipated, exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverishment of the body and force. Tonics consisting of large portions of alcohol, iron or cod liver oil do not bring the desired changes in the blood, because they do not enter the system and are not absorbed into the blood, with the exception of the alcohol, which shrivels up the red blood corpuscles when it does come in contact with them. We recommend the botanical extract of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which contains no alcohol and offers a reasonable and scientific method of treating the blood, by restoring the nutritive functions of the patient. The "Golden Medical Discovery" accomplishes this, by first restoring the enfeebled digestive organs, so that food, the natural tissue builder, will be digested and assimilated.

Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach.

GOING TO BUILD? GET Nichols' Album of Artistic Drawings, 125 pages of photographs and plans of modern houses. Tell how to build them. Postpaid 10 cents.

Plans and specifications carefully prepared for church, school, stores, etc.

NICHOLS the Architect, Bloomington, Ind.

nanks. "They had no sooner passed than I fell back and rolled half over like a log. I could feel a warm flow of blood trickling down my left arm. A shell shot at the retreating army passed high above me, whining as it flew. Then my mind went free of its trouble. The rain brought me to as it came pelting down upon the side of my face. I wondered what it might be, for I knew not where I had come. I lifted my head and looked to see a new dawn, possibly the city of God itself. It was dark—so dark I felt as if I had no eyes. Away in the distance I could hear the beating of a drum. It rang in a great silence. I have never known the like of it. I could hear the fall and trickle of the rain, but it seemed only to deepen the silence. I felt the wet grass under my face and hands. Then I knew it was night and the battlefield where I had fallen. I was alive and might see another day, thank God! I felt something move under my feet. I heard a whisper at my shoulder. "Thought you were dead long ago," it said.

"No, no," I answered; "I'm alive; I know I'm alive. This is the battlefield."

"Afraid I ain't goin' t' live," he said. "Got a terrible wound. Wish it was mornin'."

"Dark long?" I asked.

"For hours," he answered. "Dunno how many."

He began to groan and utter short prayers.

"Oh, my soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning!" I heard him cry in a loud, despairing voice.

Then there was a bit of silence, in which I could hear him whispering of his home and people.

Presently he began to sing:

"Guide me, O thou great Jehovah!
Pilgrim through this barren land.
I am weak, but thou art mighty—"

His voice broke and trembled and sank into silence.

I had business of my own to look after—perhaps I had no time to lose—and I went about it calmly. I had no strength to move and began to feel the nearing of my time. The rain was falling faster. It chilled me to the marrow as I felt it trickling over my back. I called to the man who lay beside me again and again I called to him—but no answer. Then I knew that he was dead and I alone. Long after that in the far distance I heard a voice calling. It rang like a trumpet in the still air. It grew plainer as I listened. My own name! William Brower? It was certainly calling to me and I answered with a feeble cry. In a moment I could hear the tramp of some one coming. He was sitting beside me presently, whoever it might be. I could not see him for the dark. His tongue went clucking as if he pitied me.

"Who are you?" I remember asking, but got no answer.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went ahead, never stopping, save for a moment now and then to rest. I wondered where he was taking me and what it all meant. I called again, "Who are you?" but he seemed not to hear me. "My God!" I whispered to myself. "This is no man—this is Death severing the soul from the body. The voice was that of the good God." Then I heard a man hallooing near by.

"Help, help!" I shouted faintly.

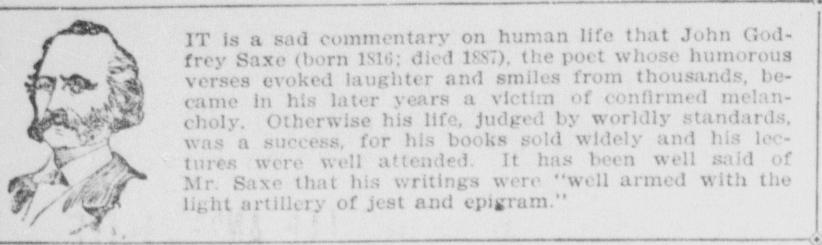

At first I was glad; then I began to feel a mighty horror of him.

In a moment he had picked me up and was making off. The jolt of his step seemed to be breaking my arms at the shoulder. As I groaned he ran. I could see nothing in the darkness, but he went

A Poem for Today

ST. JONATHAN

By John G. Saxe

IT is a sad commentary on human life that John Godfrey Saxe (born 1816; died 1887), the poet whose humorous verses evoked laughter and smiles from thousands, became in his later years a victim of confirmed melancholy. Otherwise his life, judged by worldly standards, was a success; for his books sold widely and his lectures were well attended. It has been well said of Mr. Saxe that his writings were "well armed with the light artillery of jest and epigram."

THIS is many an excellent saint:

St. George with his dragon and lance;

St. Nicholas, jolly and quaint;

St. Vitus, the saint of the dance;

St. Denis, the saint of the Gaul;

St. Andrew, the saint of the Scot;

But Jonathan, youngest of all,

Is the mightiest saint of the lot!

He wears a most serious face.

Well worthy a master's possessing;

But it isn't all owing to grace,

But partly to thinking and guessing.

In sooth, our American saint

Has rather a secular bias,

And I never have heard a complaint

Of his being excessively pious!

He's fond of financial improvement,

And is always extremely inclined

To be starting some practical movement.

For mending the morals and mind.

Do you ask me what wonderful labors

St. Jonathan has done

To rank with his calendar neighbors?

Just listen a moment to one:

One day when a flash in the air

Split his meeting house fairly asunder,

Quoth Jonathan: "Now—I declare—

They're dreadfully careless with

Thunder!"

So he fastened a rod to the steeple;

And now when the lightning comes round

He keeps it from building and people

By running it into the ground!

Reflecting, with pleasant emotion,

On the capital job he had done,

Quoth Jonathan: "I have a notion Improvements have barely begun;

If nothing's created in vain (As ministers often inform us),

The lightning's that wasted, 'tis plain, Is really something enormous!"

While ephemeris over the thing,

At length he discovered a plan To catch the Electrical King,

And make him the servant of man!

And now, in an orderly way,

He files on the fleetest of pinions,

And carries the news of the day All over his master's dominions!

One morning while taking a stroll He heard a lugubrious cry,

Like the shriek of a suffering soul In a hospital standing near by;

Anon such a terrible groan Saluted St. Jonathan's ear,

That his bosom—which wasn't of stone— Was melted with pity to hear.

That night he invented a charm So potent that folks who employ it, In losing a leg or an arm,

Don't suffer, but rather enjoy it!

A miracle, you must allow,

As good as the best of his brothers,

And blessed St. Jonathan now Is patron of cripples and mothers.

There's many an excellent saint;

St. George, with his dragon and lance;

St. Nicholas, jolly and quaint;

St. Vitus, the saint of the dance;

St. Denis, the saint of the Gaul;

But Jonathan, youngest of all,

Is the mightiest saint of the lot!

Wm. Armbruster to N. O'Neal $100.

Edward Snyder to August Krumme $200.

20 acres Washington Township $225.

Jas. A. Weekly to Louis Roberts $125

1/4 acre Salt Creek Township $125

T. F. Weddell to D. F. Mottinger $150.

acres Carr Township $150.

Isaac Smith to Albert Noe et al 5 acres Salt Creek Township $200.

Allie E. Ritz to Clara Ray 1 acre Vernon Township $1350.

Roberts B. Matlock to Guy Scott 80 acres Owen Township $100.

E. C. Kattman to Henry Kurtz ux lots 111 and 112 Crothersville $300.

Henry Kurtz to Elesha C. Bess et al lots 111 and 112 Crothersville $175.

Rachel A. Gillaspay to Wm. A. Hall et al 10 acres Vernon Township $100.

Ed H. Miller to Fred C. Miller 4 acres Hamilton Tp. $100.

J. D. Hageman to G. F. Schepman Jr. 2 acres Washington Township $25.

Eliza W. Wells to John P. Daugherty et al 2 E. M. Well's Ad. Brownstown $60.

Henry Von Dielingen to Fred Von Dielingen et ux #, lot 17 blk 58 Seymour $200.

Jas. G. Warman, Admr., to Elisha C. Bess et ux lot 14 Peter's Ad. Crothersville $100.

John H. Peters to Jonas Peters, 4 acres, Driptwood tp. $200.

E. M. Wells to Alex Greger, lot 9, Wells Ad. Brownstown $100.

E. C. Bass to Laura E. Bridges, lot 52, David ad. Crothersville, $350.

Guy V. Copeland to Ralph F. Heller part of lot 29, 54 Valonia $85.

Joseph W. Branaman to C. A. Branaman, 1/4 acre Owen tp. $250.

Fred D. Stiltz et al to C. K. Ross 40 acres, Brownstown tp. $1000.

C. K. Ross to Geo. F. Woodruff, 40 acres, Brownstown tp. 1000.

H. W. Wacker, Auditor, to Nancy Setser, 40 acres, Salt Creek tp. $180.

Martha Starnero to Manda Hunsucker 23 acres Salt Creek Tp. $50.

Martha Starnes to Elizabeth Smers 17 acres Salt Creek tp., $50.

Frank Hines et al to Noah Sharp, 6 acres, Redding tp. $100.

E. S. Robertson, Admr. to G. A. Robertson, Jr., 5 1/2 acres Brownstown tp. $775.

Isaac N. Reedy to Leander Reedy 20 acres Salt Creek tp. $300.

Martha A. Isaacs to Blaze Robertson 25 acres, Hamilton, $150.

A. J. Varnholz, guardian, to Adeline Trimpe, 120 acres, Hamilton tp. $1400.

J. H. Huber to A. D. Spalding, 82 acres, Salt Creek tp. $1200.

John Weasner to Geo. Rumbley lot 2, blk 37, Seymour, $825.

A. J. Arthur to Otto Arthur, 1 acre Salt Creek tp. $1.

Andrew Murphy to C. H. Murphy, 2 acres Vernon tp. $40.

M. C. Day to Audley McClintock, 2 acres Redding tp. $350.

F. H. Stahl to Maria E. Stahl, 40 acres, Grassy Fork tp. $1500.

Cedar Springs New Health and Pleasure Resort Attracting Much Attention.

Springs of wonderfulest power similar to the famous waters of the sea are attracting many to the health and pleasure resorts of Cedar Springs reached by the Pennsylvania Lines via New Paris, O. Hotel accommodations are under capable management. Varied recreation is offered: outdoors on the tennis courts and croquet lawns, indoors in the Clubhouse where there is a diversity of amusements and games. For particulars about fares and time of trains apply to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania Lines.

This arrangement forms a bed rest, which is always available with very little trouble and with little disturbance of the patient. On the other side of the bed is a similar arrangement, by which a collapsible chair is called up and operate in the ratchets.

This arrangement forms a bed rest, which is always available with very little trouble and with little disturbance of the patient. On the other side of the bed is a similar arrangement, by which a collapsible chair is called up and operate in the ratchets.

Any one who has ever been confined to bed by a long spell of sickness will recognize the beauties of this arrangement. Likewise will also the nurse who has been compelled to move a helplessly bedridden person during one of these spells.—Brooklyn Eagle.

SAVES LIFTING OF PATIENT.

two parallel ratchet rods having downwardly extending parts and the guide braces. Hinged to the ratchet rods is the adjustable framework section of the mattress, to which arms are pivoted, the free ends of which engage and operate in the ratchets.

This arrangement forms a bed rest, which is always available with very little trouble and with little disturbance of the patient. On the other side of the bed is a similar arrangement, by which a collapsible chair is called up and operate in the ratchets.

This arrangement forms a bed rest, which is always available with very little trouble and with little disturbance of the patient. On the other side of the bed is a similar arrangement, by which a collapsible chair is called up and operate in the ratchets.

Lawyer Again Indicted.

Lafayette, Ind., May 2.—The federal government is getting ready to reclaim several hundred thousand acres of land in the Kankakee marsh in this state and eastern Illinois. C. G. Elliott of the department of agriculture has arrived here for the purpose of gathering information on the subject. Prof. W. D. Spence of Purdue University and M. A. Downey of Anderson have been employed to assist in the work. They will make a careful survey of the marsh and prepare an estimate of the cost of an elaborate system of drains and dykes by which the entire area can be reclaimed. Property owners have reclaimed several thousand acres, which have been made the most fertile and valuable farming lands in the state. As soon as the marsh is drained the government will test the soil to see what it will best produce. It is supposed that the improvement will cost two or three million dollars.

Going After Alleged Grafters.

Newcastle, Ind., May 2.—Two former township trustees indicted in a suit in preparation against the bondsmen of an indicted one who recently died, and a special session of the grand jury this week to investigate the affairs of other trustees whose terms expired with the end of last year—this is a summary of what has been accomplished in Henry county up to this time against illegal grafts in township business. It is reported here that of the thirteen trustees that went out of office Jan. 1, all but two or three indulged in the game of official "rafeking." It is the purpose of the special session of the grand jury to ascertain whether the report is true.

Hiding in the Hills.

Princeton, Ind., May 2.—Sheriff Whiting and posse are in pursuit of Amos Barrett and Finis Tisdale, young men accused of attempting to assault Annie English, fourteen years old, and Addie Moffett, thirteen. The girls are daughters of respectable families of Oakdale city. The fugitives are said to be hiding in the hills near the Pike county line.

Lawyer Again Indicted.

Lafayette, Ind., May 2.—Joseph E. Eacock, attorney, was again arrested yesterday afternoon upon warrants based on seven indictments, accusing him of blackmail and with obtaining money under false pretenses. Eacock was indicted by the grand jury in January last, but these indictments were recently quashed because of faulty construction. A special grand jury was then called and Eacock was again indicted. The new indictments are similar to the old, with a technical correction.

Hiding in the Hills.

Princeton, Ind., May 2.—Sheriff Whiting and posse are in pursuit of Amos Barrett and Finis Tisdale, young men accused of attempting to assault Annie English, fourteen years old, and Addie Moffett, thirteen. The girls are daughters of respectable families of Oakdale city. The fugitives are said to be hiding in the hills near the Pike county line.

Overlooked $500.

North Vernon, Ind., May 2.—The Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern railway in the case of the State ex rel. Carrie Offutt against James Wayman, as surveyor of Jackson county, vented to Columbus, quashing the alternative writ. John M. Lewis sr. was in court at the time and made the statement that the ruling of the court virtually puts the case out of court.

Gillespie Case Again Continued.

Rising Sun, Ind., May 2.—By agreement of all parties the cases of the State vs. Mrs. Belle Seward and Myron Barbour and wife, charged with the murder of Elizabeth Gillespie, and the State vs. Myron Barbour, indicted for perjury, have been continued until the September term of court.

God and Immortality.

After you have assumed God you cannot without doing violence to your reason fail to assume immortality.—Washington Gladden.

Commodore Perry.

U. S. N. retired, is dead at Washington, aged eighty-three years. He was navigating officer of Commodore Perry's flagship on the expedition to Japan in the fifties.

Healthy, happy babies. Mothers say that Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the greatest baby medicine in the world. Makes them strong, well and active. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

CASTORIA.

Bears the Kind You Have Always Bought

Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Reported by O. S. Brooke, Abstractor and 5 per cent. loans.

W. L. Benton et al to Minnie B. Wallace and husband 80 acres Salt Creek Township $500.

Elizabeth Reid et al to S. I. R. R. Co. lot 13 blk 56 Seymour $200.

B. F. Schneek, Trustee, to Thomas Hopewell pt 18 6-6 Seymour.

Alfred Osborn et al

BY leaving your order and measure at Pettermann's you will receive garments that will show you at your best.

PETTERMAN, The Tailor.

Royal
Blue
Shirts
- $1.00 -
Your Money Back if They Fade

The best shirt ever made for railroad men, livery men, grocers and anyone who needs dark shirts. We have all sizes and different lengths of sleeves.

SOLD ONLY AT

The Hub

WANT ADVERTISING

Throw a stone into a crowd and you will probably hit a man who has some surplus money to invest—but you will probably go to jail if you try to find him in that way. A Want ad. or a careful reading of the want ads. will be safer.

FOR SALE—75 feet good picket fence. Inquire here.

FOR SALE CHEAP—One handsome combination (gas and electric) chandelier, 3 lights each. Inquire here.

Children Counted.

Henry Price, who has taken the enumeration of the children of school age has completed the count, and made his report to the county superintendent Tuesday afternoon. His report shows the total school population in Seymour 1654; 781 white males, 830 white females, 20 colored males, 23 colored females.

This is an increase of fifty-two over the enumeration last year, which showed 1602. The reports of the township trustees over the county showed a decrease in the school population in the rural districts.

Farewell Party.

The Young Ladies Society of the German Lutheran church gave a surprise farewell party to Miss Mollie Markworth last evening, May 1st, at the school hall. Miss Markworth was under the impression that she was merely attending a called meeting of the society, when she found that she was at a surprise party on herself.

Games and music were enjoyed throughout the evening and refreshments were served. Miss Markworth will soon move to Chicago where her father has received ministerial appointment.

Honors Won.

On yesterday morning the pupils of the High School were informed that the first honors in the Senior class were won by Harlan Montgomery and second honors by Julius Peter. The highest per cent was 1020, the second 1008 and the third highest was 994, which was scored by Claude Swingle. This class has done excellent work this year and throughout their school life and are receiving commendations from all members of the faculty.

Musical Club.

The Progressive Musical Club met last night at the home of Miss Katie May Cordes on North Chestnut Street. The following excellent program was rendered:

Piano Solo...Mrs. W.F. Pfaffenberger
Piano Solo.....Miss Lulu Casey
Paper—Chopin, Life and Compositions.....Mrs. J. F. Shiel
Vocal Duet....Mrs. Frank Able and.....Mrs. W. F. Peter
Piano Solo.....Miss Sudie Mills

Lost His Money.

James H. Thompson, who resides near the line between Bartholomew and Jackson counties south of Jonesville, attended the circus at Columbus Friday, and, going home on the train lost his pocketbook containing over $50 cash. It was found by a traveling man who turned it over to Mr. Achenbach, former Panhandle agent at Jonesville, who returned it to its owner.

Rev. I. C. Overman returned Tuesday morning from Trafalgar where he preached Sunday.

PERSONAL.

W. C. Sumner went to Columbus this morning.

George Owens, of Medora, was here this morning.

Miss Mable Montgomery spent the day at Cincinnati.

Mrs. Daniel Morgan and son spent the day at Columbus.

W. C. Ball, of Brownstown was here Monday evening.

August Cordes looked after business at Brownstown today.

W. T. Branaman transacted business at Brownstown today.

Rev. A. Egli went to Cincinnati this morning to attend conference.

W. M. Peek, of Crothersville, was in the city today on business.

Architect J. W. Royer was in the city for a short time this morning.

Mrs. Van Robertson, of Brownstown, was in the city this morning.

Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Goodloe returned to Crothersville last evening.

John Vande Walla made a business trip to St. Louis Crossing last evening.

The entertainment committee at Denver will meet the "Indiana Special" one hundred miles out from the city and the Denver "Indiana Club" will meet the train at the station.

Situated as is Denver, in the very heart of the scenic regions of the United States, it was an easy matter to arrange for numerous side trips. The trips include excursions to Pike's Peak, Garden of the Gods, Cheyenne Canyon, Manitou Springs, Cripple Creek, and many other points. A trip to Yellowstone Park and another to Portland, Oregon, can be taken under special arrangements.

The Indiana cabinet is hopeful for a very large delegation, and the outlook is most promising. Arrangements have been made for the very best of accommodations, and the railroad officials have assured the committee that personal supervision of the trip will assure the best possible comfort.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Arrangements For The International Convention At Denver.

The cabinet of the Indiana State Epworth League is arranging for their part of the International convention to be held in Denver July 5 to 9. The official train will go via the Chicago & Northwestern to Omaha and thence via Union Pacific. The train will leave Chicago at 11:30 p. m., July 3 and arrive in Denver 7 a. m. July 5. Indiana headquarters will be at "Unity" church, and the "State hotel" will be the Aldine house, where accommodations have been reserved for 175 persons at $1.50 per day. The Indiana delegation has the first choice of homes, and will be located on "Capitol hill," the finest part of the city. The regular convention rate of $1 per day for lodging and two meals will prevail in the homes.

A motion to dismiss the case against Charles McNichols was argued Monday and taken under advisement by Special Judge Mundt.

Circuit Court.

The case of Charles Schroeder vs the B. & O. S.W. railroad for damages has been venued to Scott county for trial.

A motion for a new trial in the case of George Zillman against the B. & O. S.W. was argued Monday before Judge Bushirk who heard the case last term. The motion was overruled and judgment of $100 in favor of plaintiff was rendered.

James Decker, of Owen township, plead guilty in two cases charging him with selling liquor on Sunday and in each case he was fined $10 and costs.

A motion to dismiss the case against Charles McNichols was argued Monday and taken under advisement by Special Judge Mundt.

Truant Officer.

At their meeting Monday at Brownstown the township trustees elected Benj. Henderson, of Saltcreek township, truant officer for the coming year. He received eight votes to four for B. F. Scott whom he succeeds.

SHOOFLY CORNER.

Miss Nora Mezel visited Thomas Foy and wife Saturday.

The dance at James Reidon's Saturday night was well attended. Mr. Redon and his children, Ernest and Hannah, furnished the music.

Mr. Peter Mashino and wife visited Frank Price and wife near Seymour Sunday.

Clarence Rich, who works for Ollie Foster came home Sunday to visit his parents.

Peter Niechter and his family visited here Sunday.

Antona Gasper, of Brewersville, was here on business one day last week.

How to Ward Off Old Age.

The most successful way of warding the approach of old age is to maintain a vigorous digestion. This can be done by eating only food suited to your age and occupation, and when any disorder of the stomach appears take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct it. If you have a weak stomach or are troubled with indigestion, you will find these Tablets to be just what you need. For sale by C. W. Milhous.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by C. W. Milhous.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

L. R. Witty and J. G. Ray, Southern Indiana men were here today.

Conductor Harry Flomerfelt went to Columbus today to consult Dr. Bunker.

Jesse Grice, who is in the employ of a railroad at Selma, Alabama, is here greeting old friends and looking after his property.

The B. & O. S.W. ticket office at North Vernon was robbed Sunday of $110 in cash. The money was taken from the cash drawer.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by C. W. Milhous.

The price of a pretty face is $1.00—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings red lips, bright eyes and lovely color. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Advertised Letters.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Seymour and if not called for within 14 days will be sent to the dead letter office:

LADIES

Kammon Burtha Miss

Moore Pearl Mrs

GENTS

Dickewalter Dr

Emrich J. C.

Robertson Millard J

Ridg Allert

Seymour, Ind., May 1, 1905.

WM. P. MASTERS, P. M.

The price of a pretty face is $1.00—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings red lips, bright eyes and lovely color. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Seymour and if not called for within 14 days will be sent to the dead letter office:

LADIES

Kammon Burtha Miss

Moore Pearl Mrs

GENTS

Dickewalter Dr

Emrich J. C.

Robertson Millard J

Ridg Allert

Seymour, Ind., May 1, 1905.

WM. P. MASTERS, P. M.

The price of a pretty face is $1.00—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings red lips, bright eyes and lovely color. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Seymour and if not called for within 14 days will be sent to the dead letter office:

LADIES

Kammon Burtha Miss

Moore Pearl Mrs

GENTS

Dickewalter Dr

Emrich J. C.

Robertson Millard J

Ridg Allert

Seymour, Ind., May 1, 1905.

WM. P. MASTERS, P. M.

The price of a pretty face is $1.00—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings red lips, bright eyes and lovely color. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Seymour and if not called for within 14 days will be sent to the dead letter office:

LADIES

Kammon Burtha Miss

Moore Pearl Mrs

GENTS

Dickewalter Dr

Emrich J. C.

Robertson Millard J

Ridg Allert

Seymour, Ind., May 1, 1905.

WM. P. MASTERS, P. M.

The price of a pretty face is $1.00—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings red lips, bright eyes and lovely color. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Seymour and if not called for within 14 days will be sent to the dead letter office:

LADIES

Kammon Burtha Miss

Moore Pearl Mrs

GENTS

Dickewalter Dr

Emrich J. C.

Robertson Millard J

Ridg Allert

Seymour, Ind., May 1, 1905.

WM. P. MASTERS, P. M.

The price of a pretty face is $1.00—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings red lips, bright eyes and lovely color. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Seymour and if not called for within 14 days will be sent to the dead letter office:

LADIES

Kammon Burtha Miss

Moore Pearl Mrs

GENTS

Dickewalter Dr

Emrich J. C.

Robertson Millard J

Ridg Allert

Seymour, Ind., May 1, 1905.

WM. P. MASTERS, P. M.

The price of a pretty face is $1.00—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings red lips, bright eyes and lovely color. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

